

Darcy Herauf

Darcy has had a 20 year career in agriculture, 16 of those spent with Farm Credit Canada in a variety of roles in Finance, Information Technology and Marketing.

He currently leads Farm Credit Canada's AgExpert division which builds and supports solid and simple software that helps farmers digitize their farm records. He holds a business degree from the University of Regina and farms with his family in southeastern Saskatchewan.

