Sangeeta Lalli

Sangeeta Lalli is a Public Policy Director at TELUS Agriculture. Sangeeta specializes in public affairs, advocacy campaigns, policy analysis and development in the agriculture and agri-food sectors. At TELUS Agriculture, she works with industry, government and academia to create more opportunities for deploying technology in the agriculture sector. Sangeeta leverages over a decade of private sector, government, and advocacy experience in her work.

Previously, Sangeeta was a Policy and Communications Advisor to the federal Minister of Agriculture and Agri-food, supporting the development of the Canadian Agricultural Partnership and Canada's negotiations in CUSMA. She also served as the British Columbia Advisor to the Prime Minister of Canada where she provided insights to senior government leaders on issues of significance to British Columbians, and coordinated federal responses to emerging issues in the province.
