

Jarred Cohen
Policy Advisor
Canadian Chamber of Commerce

Jarred Cohen is a Policy Advisor at the Canadian Chamber of Commerce with a focus on agriculture and agri-food, as well as cannabis and regulatory issues.

Prior to joining the Canadian Chamber, Jarred was with a government relations firm as a researcher, where he provided media and parliamentary monitoring services for clients in a host of industries. He has also spent time on Parliament Hill in various capacities. He has also worked in Transport Canada's Marine Policy Directorate, as well as the Government and Community Relations Division at VIA Rail Canada.

Jarred holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in History and Political Science from Queen's University and a Masters of Arts in European Studies from Carleton University.