

AIC Conference
May 26 - 27, 2026
Sheraton Ottawa

The Agri-Food Innovation Council Conference is an occasion for agriculture and food leaders in research and innovation and related stakeholders to gather and share information on key issues affecting the sector.

This year's theme is Agri-Food Innovation 2026 – Canada's Unique Advantage for Nation Building.

Agri-Food Innovation 2026 – Canada's Unique Advantage for Nation Building brings together leaders, innovators, researchers, and policymakers to explore transformative solutions for the future of Canada's agri-food sector. With a focus on leveraging science to unlock global trade opportunities, harnessing innovation to address persistent workforce challenges, and revitalizing the agri-food ecosystem, this conference will showcase Canada's strategic strengths and provide pathways toward sustainable growth, resilience, and global leadership in agri-food. Join us to shape the next chapter in Canada's nation-building journey through agri-food innovation.

Some key elements we will discuss:

- From Lab to Market to Global Impact: Connecting Innovation to Power Canada's Agri-Food Sector Trade,
- Harvesting Innovation: Solving Workforce Challenges in Agri-Food
- Fixing the Agri-Food Science and Innovation Ecosystem: Challenges and Solutions
